THE HON'BLE SMT. JUSTICE T. MEENA KUMARI

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE G. CHANDRAIAH

WRIT PETITION No. 11892 of 2007

O R D E R: (Per the Hon'ble Smt. Justice T. Meena Kumari)

This writ petition is filed challenging the order dated 28.3.2007 passed by the Central Administrative Tribunal, Hyderabad Bench in O.A. No. 329 of 2007.

Heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the mateial available on record.

Having regard to the grievance of the petitioners is that they are seniors than the unofficial respondents and that though they have passed the departmental examination and became eligible to be promoted as Income Tax Officers with effect from 30.10.2006, their names have not been considered for promotion in the DPC held on 28.3.2007, the Tribunal directed the petitioners – applicants to make a representation before the respondent – department to conduct a review DPC as they have passed the departmental examination prior to the date of conducting the DPC. The contention of the petitioners is that they have already made a representation dated 18.4.2007 but the same has not been considered by the official respondents. A perusal of the said representation shows that it is made with a request to include their names in the DPC 2007-08 but not to conduct the review DPC as directed by the Tribunal. Even otherwise, there is nothing wrong in the order passed by the Tribunal directing the petitioners to make representation first before the respondent – department to conduct a review DPC as it is the contention of the petitioners that they have passed the departmental examination prior to the date of conducting the DPC.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances, we find no ground to entertain this writ petition. It is accordingly dismissed.
